Rouen, A UNESCO Creative City of Gastronomy

In November 2021, Rouen was named a UNESCO Creative City of Gastronomy – the first and only French city to be part of this UNESCO network.

The international network of creative cities, launched by UNESCO in 2004, aims to promote cooperation among cities that have identified creativity as a strategic factor for sustainable development at an economic, social, cultural and environmental level. Rouen presented an action plan that includes food aid, ecological, social transition and the concept of a circular economy, as well as the appeal and dynamism of the area.

“Being part of the UNESCO network of Creative Cities is fantastic news for Rouen and the local area, as well as for all those working in Rouen’s restaurant industry. This label positions Rouen firmly on the national and international scene. Come and enjoy the conviviality, creativity and culinary flair of Rouen!”

Christine de Cintr 
President of Rouen Tourism

Gastro-tourism Experiences

Nowadays, gastronomy is an integral part of Rouen's living heritage, having been a fundamental element of the city for centuries. As the second-largest city in the Kingdom of France in the 12th century, Rouen's wealth significantly influenced the development of the city's culinary culture and fine dining tradition.

Rouen Tourism has launched a new initiative centered around gastro-tourism experiences, designed to showcase Rouen's creative flair. Visitors can stroll around Rouen's two major gourmet districts, go foraging with a chef, and explore the abundance of cheeses, seafood, and sweet treats that adorn the stands of the city's markets.

THE FRUIT TRAIL

Apples, pears, cherries and redcurrants, as far as the eye can see! At the heart of the Parc Régional des Boucles de la Seine, colourful Norman orchards stretch a distance of around 40 kilometres, forming a colourful fruit-filled valley that should be on every visitor's itinerary. Nestled in one of the sweeping loops of the Seine, and lined by white cliffs, the Fruit Trail benefits from a microclimate that enables fruit trees to thrive.

BIKE RENTALS

Embrace the freedom of the open road as you pedal through a kaleidoscope of colours and flavours in this enchanting valley. Rent a classic or electric-assist bike from our tourism offices in Rouen and Jumièges and embark on an unforgettable journey.

Explore our routes at visiterouen.com

The Fruit Trail is beautifully idyllic and perfect for discovering by bike. The well-signposted trail winds its way alongside the Seine, through the wooded Norman countryside and a rich variety of pastoral landscapes. Visitors can buy the fruit grown here at the barrier before exploring the very best of Normandy's heritage, just a stone's throw away from Rouen.

VIKINGS BEERS AND LEGENDS

From the earliest Viking expeditions along the Seine to the establishment of the Duchy of Normandy, uncover the pivotal role played by the Vikings, as well as the city of Rouen, in shaping one of France's most powerful regions. This immersive journey through Rouen breaks stereotypes about a Nordic people whose enduring influence continues to captivate.

The tour culminates in a tasting of locally brewed beers inspired by Viking traditions, within the splendid setting of the Saint-Nicaise Church-Brewery. A unique concept in France, the idea of a church-brewery is rooted in a simple principle: to preserve a religious building in peril by installing an artisanal brewery that can secure its sustainability through the sale of its signature brews.

THE ROUEN DUCKLING (LE CANARD À LA ROUENNAISE)

This speciality from Rouen is reputed around the world, being served in the French presidential palace as well as restaurants in Japan. The traditional recipe has been handed down from a Duclair innkeeper known as 'Père Denise' and dates back to 1880.

A prestigious restaurateur in Rouen, Michel Guéret founded the Ordre des Canardiers in 1986, with the aim of preserving this culinary legacy. In restaurants, a Master Canardier prepares the duck at the table, turning this culinary masterpiece into a theatrical highlight. Rouen duckling is served at Café Victor and la Couronne in Rouen, at Les Capucines in Le Petit-Quevilly and at Le Parc restaurant in Duclair.

A SMORGASBORD OF COLOURS AND FLAVOURS

The Corderie Vallois allows you to experience the atmosphere of a 19th century working textile factory. The former water-powered spinning mill was transformed into a mechanised rope factory at the end of the 19th century and remained in operation until 1978.

The timber-framed building, waterwheel, machinery and transmission shafts from the end of the 19th century are original and have been fully restored. Continue your visit to Les Confiseurs.

This very place used to be the site of the former cotton mills of Notre-Dame-de-Bondeville, north of Rouen. Today, the magnificent brick building with its imposing chimney is home to a confectionery atelier that produces traditional Norman sweets.

This boutique atelier, which employs people with disabilities, makes 'apple sugars' – Normandy's answer to barley sugars – marshmallows and fruit jellies. What better place to indulge in these delicious sweets than in this location, steeped in Rouen's industrial history? Apple sugar should definitely be on everyone's list of things to try when they come to Rouen!

EDUCATION CULINARY ART

The transmission of know-how stands as a fundamental pillar of the educational institutions in our region. This commitment has propelled Rouen to achieve the distinguished status of being the sole and exclusive member of the UNESCO “Creative Cities of Gastronomy” network in 2021. The National Institute of Bakery and Pastry (Institut National de la Boulangerie Pâtisserie - INPB), IFA Marcel Sauvage, the Georges Baptiste Hotel School, the Fauchon School, Institut Mesnières, Les P’tits plats Production School and the vocational high schools within the region attract a large number of students from France and abroad. These institutions, some of which are globally renowned, shape the perfect candidates for embracing the French way of life, particularly in gastronomy.

Sundays from 6 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Flea market: Friday to Sunday

EMMURÉES MARKET

On Place de la Fraternité, on the city's left bank, this market brings together a colourful mix of stalls — from gourmet produce and regional specialities to flowers, antiques and even clothing.

Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.

BOULINGRIN MARKET

Discover the market on Place Boulingrin, where lively stalls overflow with flavours, colours and aromas to tempt every appetite. Fresh produce, artisanal goods, gourmet groceries, antiques...

Thursdays from 7 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

DUCLAIR MARKET

In the pretty village of Duclair, just a short drive from Rouen, the market on Place du Général de Gaulle is a local favourite. Bustling and welcoming, it draws both residents and visitors who come to browse its forty or so stalls — from clothing to regional produce and everyday essentials.

Tuesday mornings from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m.

LA BOUILLE'S MARKETS

PLACE DU BATEAU

Every Wednesday morning, Place du Bateau comes alive with the market of La Bouille, a charming riverside village beloved by locals and neighbouring communities alike.

Fruits, vegetables, cured meats, cheese, seafood... Many local producers are present to showcase their fresh seasonal products. Take a moment to enjoy a drink on a café terrace and soak up the warm, convivial spirit of the market, where traders and locals greet each other like old friends.

Wednesdays from 8 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

FERRY PARKING

On Friday evenings, the market brings a special buzz to town — a weekly ritual for workers ending their day and for commuters waiting for the ferry. Stalls spill over with fresh fruit and vegetables, artisan cheeses, charcuterie, and flavours from further afield, from Italian and Senegalese dishes to Greek specialties. You'll also find oysters from Saint-Vaast, golden local honey, Élise's escargots and colourful flowers to take home. And then there's La Mousse des Temps: the friendly brewer whose little green van, with its tables and chairs set out beside it, has become a meeting point where locals and visitors alike pause, raise a glass and enjoy the warm community feel of the market.

Fridays from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.

JUMIÈGES MARKET

Set just opposite the entrance to the Abbey, this market offers a fine selection of local and artisanal products. Pick up wood-fired sourdough bread, oysters and shellfish, traditional Normandy biscuits, fresh fruit and vegetables, cheeses, farm produce and even natural cosmetics made in Normandy.

Saturdays from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.

ELBEUF MARKET

With over a hundred stallholders, you'll find a wide range of food products: beers, cider, foie gras, cheeses, honey, cured meats, spirits, wines, other Norman specialties, fruits and vegetables, milk, and meat. But the market also offers artisanal jewelry and clothing!

Tuesdays and Thursdays at Place Lécallier, from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Saturdays at Place de la Libération, from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m.

GASTRONOMIC EVENTS

ROUEN À TABLE!

Rouen à Table! is the city's great gourmet gathering, held every October during the Fête du Ventre. Celebrating Rouen — the only French city recognised as a UNESCO Creative City of Gastronomy — the event showcases culinary art in all its forms.

For several days, the city becomes a playground for food lovers: exceptional dinners, workshops, gourmet rallies, demonstrations, and encounters with chefs, artisans and producers. Rouen à Table! is an invitation to share flavours, champion local produce, and explore the dialogue between tradition and creativity.

Open to all, the event brings together restaurateurs, shopkeepers, culinary schools and regional partners, while reaching out to the world through exchanges with the UNESCO Creative Cities network.

DUCLAIR'S DUCK AND GASTRONOMY FESTIVAL

La Fête du Canard (Duck Festival) is one of Duclair's must-see gastronomic celebrations. Every two years, the town comes alive as locals and visitors gather for a full day dedicated to regional flavours and the producers who keep traditions thriving. Families can savour the spirit of Normandy through tastings, workshops, exhibitions and lively performances — all while discovering the rich heritage of Duclair in a festive, friendly atmosphere.
