Highlights of Rouen

A guided tour with a local expert is the perfect way to discover the historic heart of Rouen, its architectural splendor, landmarks and attractions. Whether you're a new visitor, or familiar with "the City of a Hundred Spires", guided tours are a wonderful chance to discover the city from a unique perspective, delving into 2000 years of history as well as feeling the vibrant energy of the present in Rouen.

Welcome to Rouen, where history unfolds from the Gallo-Roman era to the modern city along the Seine. This city has not just witnessed but actively played a role in pivotal historical times –from Viking incursions to the imprisonment of Joan of Arc, being an inspiration for Impressionists, to enduring bombings in World War II.

This guided tour unveils the splendor of gothic architecture, epitomized by the Rouen Cathedral. Its facade, the widest in France, boasts a breathtaking array of statues and intricate stone lace. Just opposite, the majestic Bureau des Finances is a fine example of Renaissance style in France, adorned with decorations inspired by Italian art. It was on the first floor of this building that Claude Monet set up his easel to paint the famous canvases of the Cathedral.

The tour explores Rue Saint-Romain and the Saint-Maclou district, untouched by bombings and preserving their historical charm. The Place Barthélémy, with the elegant porch of the Saint-Maclou Church, is a true gem, as well as the Normandy Parliament, now the Palace of Justice –an absolute delight for architecture enthusiasts. No visit to Rouen would be complete without the sight of the city's iconic building: the Gros-Horloge, a stunning Renaissance astronomic clock arching over the bustling shopping street. A monument of enduring elegance, sharing stories with each passing generation for the past centuries!

The guided tour provides an opportunity to see the most beautiful half-timbered facades preserved in the city. Rouen boasts over 2,000 half-timbered houses, with 200 dating back to the medieval times! Upon reaching the Old Market Square, you'll be captivated by the remarkable Saint-Joan of Arc Church. Its strikingly modern design bears a strong resemblance to the form of a sail or the prow of a ship, depending on your perspective. Just outside the church, a large steel cross marks the location of the stake where Joan of Arc was burned in 1431. This 2-hour guided tour offers a chance to see the landmarks in a short space of time and grasp the city's fascinating history –an engaging prelude that invites visitors to further wander in Rouen in search of more hidden treasures.

Rain, familiar yet elusive, has inspired artists for over two centuries. In the Rain: Painting, Living and Dreaming, designed in collaboration with the Nantes Museum of Art, explores how painters, photographers and illustrators have represented this phenomenon that transforms landscapes, obscures vision, influences emotions and stimulates the senses. From Romantic sensibility to contemporary visions, the exhibition shows how rain becomes, in turn, a pictorial subject, an urban motif, an intimate memory or poetic material. The visitor experience is enriched by an immersive mediation: a Musair sound tour accompanies the public throughout the exhibition, while a dedicated space offers film clips, playlists, visual and audio resources, as well as features adapted for younger visitors.

NORMANDY IMPRESSIONIST FESTIVAL

From 29 May to 27 September

In 2026, we will celebrate the 100th anniversary of Claude Monet's death. And in Normandy, this anniversary is rich in meaning. Firstly, because the master of the Impressionist movement spent the last 43 years of his life in Giverny, in the Eure department, where he produced a body of work, a manifesto of modernity and a vision of nature, which would later become an ode to peace. Secondly, Normandy saw him become a genius, from Le Havre to Giverny via Rouen. Rouen is also an essential part of Monet's life and will, of course, be part of this 100% contemporary tribute to the Impressionist master. The Cathedral, the subject of the artist's pictorial experiments, will once again be a highlight of this programme, with a mapping entrusted to a major artist on the Japanese scene, with a pop and ultra-colourful universe. The Normandy Impressionist 2026 trail, on the theme of gardens, will begin as soon as visitors arrive at the station, which Monet frequented so often, with a spectacular and poetic display.

For this edition, the public will also have the opportunity to rediscover a place that has been closed to the public for so long, the Sainte Croix des Pelletiers Church, for an unforgettable moment of reverie. Other major artistic events will also be held at the Centre Photographique, the Frac de Rouen, the Côte Sainte Catherine and the Jardin des Plantes.
